

PRESENTING THE CENTENNIAL COMMEMORATIVE TILE!

These tiles were specially designed with artwork by Fort Mitchell artist Tom Gaither to commemorate the Centennial of the City. These keepsakes are available for purchase now at a cost of $25 each. This is a limited edition of only 150 commemorative tiles. Tiles will be available for purchase while supplies last at the City Building, at the Centennial Dinner, and at the Taste of Fort Mitchell. Pick one up today for yourself or to use as a gift that will be enjoyed for years to come. For more information call (859) 331-1212.

ANNOUNCING A SPECIAL HISTORY OF FORT MITCHELL!

Local historians and families have worked together to compile a comprehensive history of the City's first one hundred years to be released in 2010 as we celebrate the City's Centennial. We hope to have the book ready for distribution in time for Christmas 2010. The pre-sale price through October 1st for the hardcover book is $20 and after October 1st the cost will be $25. You may order your copy by sending this form with your check payable to the City of Fort Mitchell, in person to 2355 Dixie Highway or sent by mail to P.O. Box 17157, Fort Mitchell, KY 41017-0157.
